
King & Spalding was named one of the top U.S. law firms for diversity for the fifth consecutive year, according to a survey by MultiCultural Law magazine.

King & Spalding's most important asset is the talent it attracts, nurtures, and develops.

The best talent is diverse in many ways, including gender, race, sexual orientation, and national origin. A diverse talent base provides the range of experience, approach, and judgment necessary to achieve the best results for our clients and creates the most collegial and interesting workplace environment.

Achieving a workplace environment that encompasses diversity is a fundamental core value of King & Spalding. The King & Spalding Diversity Fellowship Program furthers our commitment to recruit, retain, and promote talented lawyers who will contribute to the advancement of diversity within the firm and in the legal profession.

Fellowship Benefits

The King & Spalding Diversity Fellowship Program awards up to five fellowships to qualified second-year law students who show promise of contributing meaningfully to the diversity of the legal community. Each recipient receives $10,000 and a summer clerkship at King & Spalding's Atlanta, Charlotte, Houston, New York, San Francisco, Silicon Valley or Washington offices the summer following the completion of his or her second year of law school. The program is available to any student with an ethnically or culturally diverse background.

Eligibility Criteria

Must meet the academic and hiring criteria of King & Spalding's summer associate program; receive an offer of summer employment for their second-year summer; be a member of one of the racial/ethnic groups set forth by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or be a member of the LGBT community; and complete an application form and brief personal statement.

Application Process

Please complete the application provided and submit the following documents:

- A copy of your current résumé
- A copy of your undergraduate transcript
- A copy of your law school transcript
- A personal statement, not to exceed 500 words, which describes your talents, qualities, and experiences and how you would contribute to the diversity of King & Spalding
