Professor Irene Merker Rosenberg was a compassionate, courageous, and accomplished woman, who contributed much to her community, to the world of scholarship, to the students she taught, and to the UH Law Center that she graced.

Irene was a trailblazer in the field of juvenile justice and was an expert in children's law, constitutional law, criminal law, and Jewish law. A teacher and scholar of uncommon breadth, she wrote with equal facility in all of her disciplines. Students and colleagues will long remember Irene Rosenberg's passion for fairness and justice, colorful teaching style, and her excellence in scholarship.

*Contributions in her memory may be directed to the Irene Merker Rosenberg Scholars Fund of the Center for Children, Law and Policy at the University of Houston Law Center.
Memorials may be remitted to University of Houston Law Foundation, 100 Law Center, Houston, Texas 77204-6060.*
