Course Materials:

DAN B. DOBBS, PAUL T. HAYDEN, ELLEN M. BUBLICK, TORTS AND COMPENSATION (Concise Edition, 6th ed. 2009).

Course Requirements and Policies:

Course Requirements and Grading: This course has two requirements: (1) preparing for class and actively participating in class discussion; and (2) completing a four-hour exam. Only the final exam will be graded.

- (1) Attendance and Preparedness. Preparation and active participation in class discussion will be expected. For each class, I will ask questions of the panel of students assigned to be “on-call” that day. At my discretion, a student’s final grade may be adjusted upward or downward by one notch (e.g., from B to B+, or from B- to C+) in recognition of strong classroom contributions or lack thereof. Pursuant to the Law Center’s policy, you must attend at least 80% of all class meetings; however, you should strive to attend 100%. Missing more than 20% of classes will result in your being dropped from the course.
- (2) Exam. You will complete a graded four-hour exam. During the exam you may consult three things: (1) your casebook, (2) any printed additional course reading, PowerPoint slides, and handouts, and (3) your outline. More details regarding the exam format and content will be discussed as the exam date approaches.

Seating Assignments: At the second class, I will create a seating chart. You must sit in your assigned seat for the remainder of the semester.

Cell Phones/Pagers: During class, all electronic devices should be set to silent mode.

Web site: Handouts, PowerPoint slides, the syllabus, and links to any supplemental materials will be posted on the course at <http://www.law.uh.edu/faculty/jmantel/torts.html>.

Office Hours: I will hold office hours in my office on Wednesday from 1:00-2:00 p.m. and by appointment. Please feel free to come by to see me not only about class matters, but also for course selection guidance, career counseling, or any other matter related to your legal education and career.
