

ADMIRALTY

FALL 2014

Professor Raymond L. Britton
Monday and Wednesday
10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

INFORMAL CLASSROOM SETTING

This class will be conducted in an informal setting similar to a seminar approach. All questions are encouraged.

ATTENDANCE

Attendance sheets will be taken at each class period. You must meet the minimum attendance requirements in order to remain in the class and receive a grade.

SEATING CHART

Add your name to the seating chart and please adhere to selection. Make no changes until we discuss the need for your request.

CLASS PARTICIPATION

You are responsible for two dates to present the assigned readings for that day. Participation is important, as it may be a grade weight factor. On your participation date you will be relied on to present if no other students participate. A sign-up sheet will be passed around for class participation dates.

ASSIGNED READINGS

The following syllabus is a guide to the readings 20 pages to be covered during each class meeting depending on the content. Some changes may be made during the semester. Try to stay 20 pages ahead of where we stopped during the previous class.

- | | |
|---------|--|
| Class 1 | Chapter 1 Jurisdiction of Maritime Cases
Please read and be prepared to discuss pp. 1-17 |
| Class 2 | Chapter 1 Jurisdiction of Maritime Cases
Please read and be prepared to discuss pp. 17-30 |