The following is the syllabus for the Spring 2006 Immigration Law Course. The text we will use is Immigration and Citizenship, 5th Edition, by Aleinokoff, Martin and Motomura. There will be additional recent precedent cases as well as articles assigned which are not covered in the text. The focus of the class will be three-fold: a) an overview of all areas of immigration law; b) discussion of the practical application of the law; and c) economic, social and political considerations which have shaped the law. Class is scheduled on Wednesday and Thursday morning at 9:00 A.M. It is a three credit course. Five absences are allowed during the course of the semester. If you need to go beyond this limit due to some emergency or unforeseen circumstance you should contact me. The assignments are listed below. My office hours will be Friday morning from 10:30 A.M. to 12:00 noon.
