

First Day Assignment
Practice of Law in the Oil and Gas Industry
Spring, 2014 - Lynn Bortka

First class is the evening of Monday, January 13th. As soon as possible (do it now!) contact me at lynnbortka@gmail.com and provide/answer the following:

1. Your full name and the name you would like to be called in class
2. A representative head/shoulders photo(s) of how you will appear in class

Brad Pitt

How Brad Pitt
would appear in my class

3. The email address(s) at which I will send material to you during the semester
4. A short description of “where you are” in the law school process such as 2L, LLM, FLLM, etc. and when you expect to graduate
5. Your undergraduate degree and course of study
6. In at least 100 words, tell me what you know about the oil and gas industry.
7. What relationship do your closest relatives and friends have with the oil and gas industry?
8. What would you do for a living if you couldn’t be a lawyer? Why?
9. What type of part time/full time jobs have you had?
10. Where have you lived in the United States?
11. How long have you lived in Texas?
12. What languages, besides English, do you speak?
13. In what countries, besides the U.S., have you lived (and how long in each country)?

Do NOT send email to my UH email address. I check that in-box about once a year.

I look forward to meeting you! For those of you I already know, welcome back to another semester of cerebral hemorrhaging (and, yes, you have to send me another picture AND all the above information).
