

Susan P. Raine, M.D., J.D., LL.M., M.Ed.

Dr. Raine received her medical degree from Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, Texas. Prior to entering medical school, she completed her J.D. at the University of Texas School of Law and has been a member of the State Bar of Texas since 1995. Dr. Raine joined the Baylor College of Medicine faculty after completing her residency training in Obstetrics and Gynecology in 2005 and received her board-certification in 2007. Dr. Raine was awarded an LL.M. in Health Law and Policy from the University of Houston Law Center in 2010 and subsequently obtained a Masters of Education in 2013 with a focus on curriculum development.

Dr. Raine is currently an Associate Professor at Baylor College of Medicine in the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology and the Center for Medical Ethics and Health Policy. In addition to her clinical practice, she serves in several leadership roles at the College including Program Director for the M.D./J.D. Dual Degree Program and Director of Educator Initiatives and Faculty Awards in the Office of Faculty Development.