

A.A. WHITE DISPUTE RESOLUTION CENTER

EXPLORING BEST PRACTICES IN FAMILY MEDIATION

The training introduces family mediation as a method of resolving disputes that arise in marital dissolution, property division, modification, enforcement, conservatorship, parentage and other family litigation. Participants learn skills to mediate family conflict through interactive discussion, lecture and role play/simulation.

The program fulfills Texas statutory mediation education requirements and complies with Texas Mediation Trainers Roundtable Family Mediation Training standards.

The course includes a minimum of four hours of family violence dynamics training developed in consultation with a statewide family violence advocacy organization in compliance with Senate Bill 539 passed by the 85th Texas Legislature.
