

SHARON E. HORMANN

3543 MAPLE PARK DRIVE
KINGWOOD, TEXAS
(281) 358-0830

Education

University of Houston Law Center

JD 1996

Bar Examination taken and passed 1996 (State Bar 00796777)

Last semester spent as a student in the Family and Poverty Law Clinic. As a student attorney, I was part of a two-attorney team responsible for a jury trial in Family Court.

University of Houston

BS Political Science Magna Cum Laude 1993

North Harris County Community College

AA With Honors 1990

University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

1961-1963

Employment

1996-present Attorney in solo practice

My practice consists primarily of Family Law matters.

1999-present Adjunct faculty at the University of Houston, Blakely Advocacy Institute, Litigation Skills Program

1997-2000 Guest lecturer for Professor Marrus in the Clinical program at UH Law.

I have presented a workshop on voir dire at the orientation training sessions for the new students working in the clinical program.

Professional Affiliations

State Bar of Texas

State Bar of Texas-Family Section

Houston Bar Association

Houston Bar-Family Section

North East Harris County Bar Association (President-Elect 2001-2002; President 2002-2003; President 2006-2007))

Personal

Born in Philadelphia 1943

Married in July 1965 to Frank

Three children: Mark, born 1967, is a pediatrician and is married with four children. Kirsten, born in 1970, is an attorney in Houston, and is married with two children. KC, born in 1982, is a first year law student at UH.

Prior to returning to school in 1988, I was a stay-at-home mom. During that time, I was involved in school, church, and scouting activities. I held various board positions over sixteen years with the parent band organization that included three terms as president. This support group represented more than a thousand students in our band program in the school district and ran a budget of over $100,000. a year.

I served on the board of both the local Girl Scout and Boy Scout organizations and I represented the San Jacinto Girl Scouts as a member of the adult training staff. As neighborhood chairman for Robinhood neighborhood in Girl Scouts, I had administrative responsibility for 65 troops and over 800 scouts.

I sing in my church choir and serve as cantor for Sunday services.

E-mail: shormann@kingwoodcable.net