

Property

- Module 3
- Estates and Future Interests

Property, Spring 2009, Prof. Greg R. Vetter

Estate System

- Estate - drawn from “status”
- Classification system, taxonomy still exists, although some types of estates are, in practice, obsolete today

Feudal services required for the tenure versus incidents of feudal tenure

Property, Spring 2009, Prof. Greg R. Vetter

OH 14.1.a

White v. Brown (Tennessee 1977)

- Family arrangement and dispute?
- Will construction
- Majority
- Dissent

Restraints on Alienation

- Restraints on Alienation
  - Four reasons
  - Three categories
  - Application to fee simple and life estate

Baker v. Weedon (Miss. 1972)

- Dispute?
- Baker's interests
- Weedon's interests
- Approach to will interpretation
- The court's new standard and course of action

Property, Spring 2009, Prof. Greg R. Vetter

OH 3.4.a

Baker v. Weedon (Miss. 1972)

- Waste
  - Applies – concurrent or consecutive ownership
  - Doctrines that seek to avoid waste of the property
    - So one owner does not unreasonably interfere with expectations of another
- Types of waste
  - Affirmative – voluntary acts
    - Ameliorative? – common law versus U.S. rule
  - Permissive – failure to act

Property, Spring 2009, Prof. Greg R. Vetter

OH 3.4.b

Mahrenholz v. School Board (IL App. 1981)

Mahrenholz v. School Board (IL App. 1981)

- Outcome on remand to trial court? (note 3)
- Transferability of reversions: POR and Right of Reentry
  - Intestate
  - Inter vivos
  - Will
- Conditions versus covenants

Mountain Brow Lodge v. Toscano (CA App. 1968)

- Dispute
- Issues
  - Restraint on alienation?
  - Construction of the term “use”
- Majority – construction of the grant

FS/STCS	Restraint on Alienation
“if the event the [property] fails to be used by the second party”	“in the event of sale or transfer by the second party”

- Dissent
  - This approach leads to fragmented title in the future

Ink v. City of Canton (OH 1965)

- Dispute
- Grant
  - For the use and purpose of a public park, but for no other use or purpose whatsoever
- How to apportion eminent domain payment

