Publications

Books:

Mexican Law (with Cossio, Pereznieto, Roldán and López) (Oxford University Press, 2004).

Basic Documents of International Economic Law (General editor and contributor, with Prof. Ronald Brand; Commerce Clearing House, 1990). Two-volume reference work with documents and commentary.

Computer Database:

Founding editor, Database on International Economic Law (General editor, with Ronald Brand). This on-line database, available on LEXIS and WESTLAW, contains the major international agreements dealing with international economic law.

Articles and Book Chapters:

“NAFTA at Seven Years,” Ars Iuris, Universidad Panamericana, 2002. An updated and revised version of this article is included as Chapter 1A, “Assessing NAFTA”, in Doing Business in Mexico (Mark Wojcik, ed., 2008).

“El Derecho Internacional y la Economica Mundial a Finales del Siglo XX,” in La Ciencia del Derecho Durante el Siglo XX 229-249 (1998)

"NAFTA and the Harmonization of Domestic Legal Systems: The Side Effects of Free

Book Reviews:

International Monetary Collaboration, by Richard W. Edwards, Jr., reviewed in 34
American Journal of Comparative Law 400 (1986).

Additional Academic Publications:

Unpublished Reports:
Final Report to the U.S. Agency for International Development, "The Role of Law in Social Change in Latin America and the Caribbean" (1978). (As Rapporteur of the American Society of International Law Panel on the above subject, I cooperated with other panel members in writing the final report to USAID, which funded the project. The report deals with legal aid, law reform and public interest law programs in the region.)