Victoria, David and Nishan:

You'll be our class reading panel for Thursday. We'll pick up our discussion of the federalism clear statement principle with Justice O'Connor's opinion in Ashcroft v. Gregory, and then the scrivener's error doctrine. We'll wrap with a review of criticisms of the canons of construction and their best uses.

As always please remember that the reading panel is only a safety net, and the rest of the class is expected to complete the reading before class as well.

As always, you can find the readings and supplemental materials at the class website (<http://www.law.uh.edu/faculty/thester/courses/Statutory2014/course.html>).

For those of you interested in energy or oil & gas law, I've attached a flyer describing Prof. Wiseman's lecture on Thursday immediately before our class.
