On Friday and Saturday, February 8-9, 2019, the University of Houston Law Center will host the 2019 Works-in-Progress Intellectual Property Colloquium. The Law Center's Institute for Intellectual Property & Information Law (IPIL) is organizing the event, including its core faculty of Dave Fagundes, Paul Janicke, Craig Joyce, Sapna Kumar, Andrew Michaels, and Greg R. Vetter.

WIPIP offers an opportunity for intellectual property law scholars to present their works-in-progress and get early feedback from their colleagues. Faculty members are welcome to present, but presentation is not required. Non-faculty may also get a chance to present if there are sufficient slots available.

WIPIP 2019

The Colloquium is free of charge. Participants are responsible for their expenses.

To register for the Colloquium, please contact IPIL's Program Director, Sinee Bielamowicz, by Friday, November 16, 2018, at ipil@uh.edu. If you would like to present a paper at the conference, please include a title and an abstract of your paper with your registration.
