DISBARMENTS

On Feb. 9, 2015, Daniel Charles Little [#24047534], 57, of Hurst, was disbarred. The District 7 Grievance Committee found that in representing complainant in two traffic citations, Little neglected the legal matters entrusted to him by failing to inform complainant of the trial date and failing to attend the trial. Little failed to keep complainant reasonably informed about the status of his legal matters and failed to promptly comply with reasonable requests for information from complainant. Upon termination of representation in complainant's traffic citations, Little failed to refund advance payments of fees that had not been earned. Little failed to timely furnish to the Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel a response or other information as required by the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure and did not in good faith timely assert a privilege or other legal ground for his failure to do so.

Little violated Rules 1.01(b)(1), 1.03(a), 1.15(d), and 8.04(a)(8). He was ordered to pay $2,327.26 in attorneys' fees and direct expenses and $300 in restitution.

Little filed an appeal on March 10, 2015.

On Feb. 9, 2015, Daniel Charles Little [#24047534], 57, of Hurst, was disbarred. The District 7 Grievance Committee found that in representing complainant in her legal matter with the city of Decatur, Little neglected the legal matter entrusted to him by failing to send to the city of Decatur a demand letter and failing to perform any other legal services on complainant's behalf. Upon termination of representation, Little failed to refund advance payments of fees that had not been earned. Little failed to timely furnish to the Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel a response or other information as required by the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure and did not in good faith timely assert a privilege or other legal ground for his failure to do so.

Little violated Rules 1.01(b)(1), 1.15(d), and 8.04(a)(8). He was ordered to pay $2,341.26 in attorneys' fees and direct expenses and $750 in restitution.

Little filed an appeal on March 10, 2015.

RESIGNATIONS

On March 11, 2015, the Supreme Court of Texas accepted the resignation, in lieu of discipline, of Hensel Murchison [#14681000], 77, of Cypress. At the time of his resignation, there were pending disciplinary actions alleging that Murchison neglected the legal matters entrusted to him by his clients; failed to hold a client's or third person's funds in a trust account separate from his own property; failed to promptly deliver those funds to the client or third person; failed to keep property in which both he and another person claimed interest separate until there was an accounting and severance of their interest; engaged in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation; and failed to timely furnish to the Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel a response or other information as required by the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure.

Murchison violated Rules 1.01(b)(1), 1.14(a), 1.14(b), 1.14(c), 8.04(a)(3), and 8.04(a)(8). As a condition for his reinstatement, Murchison was ordered to pay $10,500 in restitution, $1,845 in attorneys' fees, and $1,059 in direct expenses.

SUSPENSIONS

On March 11, 2015, Blair Bernard Brininger III [#03002550], 58, of Houston, accepted an 18-month partially probated suspension effective April 1, 2015, with the first three months actively suspended and the remainder probated. An evidentiary panel of the District 4 Grievance Committee found that Brininger neglected the legal matters entrusted to him, failed to keep his clients reasonably informed about the status of their cases, and failed to timely return client files, papers, and unearned fees upon termination.

Brininger violated Rules 1.01(b)(1), 1.03(a), and 1.15(d). He agreed to pay $3,996.46 in attorneys' fees and direct expenses.

On Feb. 5, 2015, Mark L. Honsaker [#00795425], 48, of Houston, received a six-month fully probated suspension effective Feb. 1, 2015. The 55th Civil Court of Harris County found that Honsaker violated Rule 8.04(a)(3) [prohibiting a lawyer from engaging in conduct involving misrepresentation].

Honsaker was ordered to pay $1,000 in attorneys' fees and direct expenses.

On Feb. 23, 2015, Kelly Michael Kowis [#90001781], 46, of the Woodlands, received a three-year partially probated suspension effective April 1, 2015, with the first year actively suspended and the remainder probated. An evidentiary panel of the District 3 Grievance Committee found that in representing his clients, Kowis neglected the legal matter entrusted to him and failed to keep his clients reasonably informed about the status of their legal matters. He failed to promptly comply with reasonable requests for information from his clients and failed to explain the status of their legal matters to the extent reasonably necessary to permit the clients to make informed decisions regarding representation. Upon termination of the representation, Kowis failed to refund advance payments of fees that he had not earned and failed to timely furnish to the Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel a response or other information as required by the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure.

Kowis violated Rules 1.01(b)(1), 1.03(a), 1.03(b), 1.15(d), and 8.04(a)(8). He was ordered to pay $3,580 in attorneys' fees and direct expenses and $5,455 in restitution.

Kowis did not file an appeal.

On March 17, 2015, William A. Walsh [#00794816], 69, of Fort Worth, received an 18-month fully probated suspension effective March 1, 2015. An evidentiary panel of the District 14 Grievance Committee found that Walsh engaged in the practice of law when his right to practice had been administratively suspended for non-compliance with Texas Supreme Court rules concerning repayment of his student loans.

Walsh violated Rule 8.04(a)(11). He was ordered to pay $5,192.70 in attorneys' fees and direct expenses.

As of April 16, 2015, Walsh had not filed an appeal.
