THE CENTER FOR US AND MEXICAN LAW TAKES PLEASURE IN INVITING YOU TO A SPECIAL MEXICO BRIEFING:

US – Mexico Relations After the Elections: New Administrations, New Policies?

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2012
8:15 A.M.
BREAKFAST BRIEFING HOSTED BY HAYNES & BOONE, LLP
LOCATION: HAYNES & BOONE - HOUSTON OFFICE
ONE HOUSTON CENTER, 1221 MCKINNEY STREET, SUITE 2100

Dr. Robert Pastor is a noted expert on U.S. – Latin American relations. A Professor of International Relations at American University in Washington, D.C., he is founding director of AU's Center for North American Studies and of the Center for Democracy and Election Management. From 2002-07, he was Vice President of International Affairs at AU, where he transformed and expanded the study abroad program, and established the American University of Nigeria. He served as National Security Advisor for Latin America during the administration of President Jimmy Carter, and he was a Senior Fellow and director of programs on democracy, Latin America, and China at the Carter Center.

Dr. Pastor has published 17 books and numerous articles. His books include, most recently, The North American Idea: A Vision of a Continental Future; Exiting the Whirlpool: US Foreign Policy Toward Latin America and the Caribbean; and Limits to Friendship: The United States and Mexico (with Jorge Castañeda, former Foreign Minister of Mexico). As Vice Chair of the Council of Foreign Relations' Independent Task Force on North American, he was editor of the report Building a North American Community.

RSVP BY NOV. 12 TO CARMEN CUELLAR
cdcuella@central.UH.EDU or 713.743.2126
(SPACE IS LIMITED - PLEASE REPLY EARLY)