The University of Houston is a Carnegie-designated Tier One public research university and an EEO/AA institution.

IN COLLABORATION WITH THE INTERNATIONAL LAW SOCIETY AND HISPANIC LAW STUDENTS ASSOCIATION INVITE YOU TO A SPECIAL LUNCH PRESENTATION

STRUCTURAL REFORM IN MEXICO: CHALLENGES AHEAD
RULE OF LAW, CORRUPTION, TRANSPARENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

MARCH 24, 2015
12:00 PM, ROOM 209 BLB
A LIGHT LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED.

FEATURED SPEAKER
ALONSO GONZÁLEZ-VILLALOBOS
COUNTRY DIRECTOR, AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION, RULE OF LAW INITIATIVE (ABA ROLI)
CONSULTANT IN LAW AND INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Alonso González-Villalobos is an independent consultant in the fields of international law (public and private), alternative dispute resolution, criminal law and international cooperation and development. As of 2010, he also leads the Mexico office of the American Bar Association Rule of Law Initiative, devoted to support the improvement of the rule of law in Mexico, particularly in regards with the implementation of the criminal accusatorial system and with the legal education and legal profession regimes. From 2002 through 2007 González-Villalobos worked first for the Mexican Federal Government in the field of international economic law, and then practiced Law representing criminal, international extradition and international human rights cases in Mexico, the USA, Costa Rica, Panama, Spain and Canada.

González-Villalobos obtained his degree in Law at Universidad Panamericana, in Guadalajara, Mexico and then a Master of Laws (with specialisation in International Law) from the University of Cambridge. He has conducted other graduate studies in international arbitration, human rights and trial advocacy at institutions based in the USA, France, Chile and Mexico.

The University of Houston is a Carnegie-designated Tier One public research university and an EEO/AA institution.