Professor Hawkins will testify at the House Financial Institutions and Consumer Credit Subcommittee hearing "Examining Rental Purchase Agreements and the Potential Role for Federal Regulation" on July 26, 2011, according to a notice published in the Washington Daybook.

The following notice appeared in the Washington Daybook on July 21, 2011.

House Financial Services Committee, July 26, 2011

ORGANIZATION: House Financial Services Committee

COMMITTEE: House Financial Services Committee

SUB-COMMITTEE: Financial Institutions and Consumer Credit Subcommittee

EVENT: Financial Institutions and Consumer Credit Subcommittee hearing on "Examining Rental Purchase Agreements and the Potential Role for Federal Regulation."

TIME: 10 a.m.

LOCATION: 2128 Rayburn House Office Building

PARTICIPANTS: Charles Harwood, deputy director Federal Trade Commission's Bureau of Consumer Protection; Jim Hawkins, assistant professor of law at the University of Houston Law Center; Roy Soto, owner of Premier Rental Purchase; Vivian Saunders; and Margot Freeman Saunders, of counsel for the National Consumer Law Center, testify