

Public Interest Job Resources

Advancement Project

www.advancementproject.org

The advancement Project is a justice and democracy action group. Students and attorneys can sign up on the website's mailing list to receive action updates and job postings.

Alliance for Conflict Transformation

www.conflicttransformation.org

This is an independent non-profit organization dedicated to building peace. The website features a jobs/scholarships announcements forum.

Alliance for Justice

www.afj.org

This website describes an association of environmental, civil rights, consumer and women's organizations dedicated to the survival and growth of public interest advocacy.

American Bar Association

www.abanet.org/careercounsel/home.html

The ABA website includes an extensive job list as well as tips for job hunters such as preparing for interviews.

American Society for Public Administration

www.aspanet.org

This website features listings for non-profit, government, and university jobs.

Attorney Jobs

www.attorneyjobs.org

This website features extensive listings of jobs in all practice areas. They charge a fee of $45 for 3 months.

City Limits Job Listings

www.citylimits.org/jobs

This website is predominately for postgraduates. It posts jobs from public interest employers in New York City.

Clinical Legal Education Association

www.cleaweb.org

The Clinical Legal Education Association is a non-profit association open to those interested in using clinical methodology to prepare for more effective practice of law. The website includes a job board for clinical teaching positions.

Coalition on Human Needs

www.chn.org

This website includes job opportunities in public policy, some jobs for attorneys.

Community Career Center

www.nonprofitjobs.org

This website features job listings in categories such as community organizing. No actual legal positions listed.

Department of Justice

www.usdoj.gov

This website features selected attorney jobs.

Emplawyernet

www.emplawyernet.com

This website features jobs in government and public interest. Students can join for free for 3 months (underwritten by Lexis-Nexis). After that, students pay $5.95 per month and all others pay $9.95 per month.

Public Interest Job Resources

Essential Home Page

www.essential.org

This website features a clearinghouse for public interest organizations. Their organizations home page provides links to public interest organization home pages, including the Equal Justice Works and Alliance for Justice home pages.

Fair Housing

www.fairhousing.com

This website features a list of public interest attorneys with organizations nationwide.

Federal Law Clerk Information System

www.lawclerks.ao.uscourts.gov

Features an online database that allows prospective applicants to search a national database of federal law clerk vacancies.

Foundation Center

www.fdncenter.org

This website features many non-attorney positions in addition to legal listings in development, policy programming, communications, and non-legal advocacy.

Guidestar

www.guidestar.org/classifieds

Guidestar features an online marketplace to find job postings, volunteer opportunities and more.

Harvard's Public Interest Site

www.law.harvard.edu/students/opia

Operated by Harvard Office of Public Interest Advising, this site has good links to several public interest sites.

Hieros Gamos Legal Employment Center

www.hg.org/employment.html

This website features a large database that can be personalized to search only for public interest jobs.

Hill Zoo

www.hillzoo.com

This website features listings for jobs on Capitol Hill—Democratic, Republican, lobbying, policy, and legislative jobs all listed.

Human Rights Internet (HRI)

www.hri.ca

Founded in 1976, HRI is a leader in the exchange of information within the worldwide human rights community.

Idealist.org

www.idealists.org

This website features listings of non-profit jobs and internships worldwide.

International Career Employment Center

www.internationaljobs.org

This is a subscription web resource for international opportunities.

Lawyers Without Borders

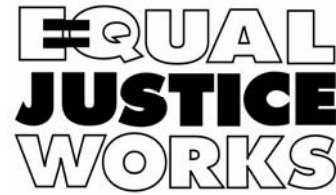

www.lawyerswithoutborders.org

Lawyers Without Borders is a global association of lawyers dedicated to the promotion and protection of human justice via pro bono service.

Legal Services Corporation

www.lsc.gov/about/vareer.php

A private, non-profit corporation established by Congress in 1974 to assure equal access to justice. This website features jobs located at the Legal Services Corporation.

Public Interest Job Resources

Local Independent Charities

www.lic.org

LIC is a federation of over 500 local non-profit charitable organizations, helping children, the poor, the ill and disabled, the elderly and others in need in local communities. This site ties all of those organizations together and lists opportunities. Organizations allow students to volunteer online.

The Main Federal Web Page

www.fedworld.gov/jobs/jobsearch.html

This website features links to job listings at various sites. The search engine can be tailored to search for legal positions only.

Minnesota Justice Foundation

www.mnjustice.org

Through the work of full-time and part-time staff and AmeriCorps and *VISTA volunteers, MJF links students to opportunities throughout the legal services community.

The National Association for Law Placement (NALP)

www.nalp.org

This website features employment listings from nearly 30 federal employers and a wealth of additional information including an in-depth look at the federal government's myriad of departments and agencies.

National Conference of State Legislatures

www.ncsl.org/public/jobleis.htm

This website posts job openings with state legislatures, both legal and non-legal.

National Council of Non-Profits

www.ncna.org

The National Council of Nonprofit Associations (NCNA) is the network of state and regional nonprofit associations serving over 22,000 members in 45 states and Washington, DC. Search for jobs by state.

National Legal Aid and Defender Association

www.nlada.org

The "Jobs" area of the NLADA web site includes positions in civil legal services, defender organizations, public interest law firms, and academia.

National Center on Poverty Law

www.povertylaw.org

Committed to serving the information and community needs of advocates who represent low-income people, the NCPL is the nation's only comprehensive research service devoted to poverty law. The NCPL site includes a variety of research links of interest to poverty law advocates.

Native American Employment Resource

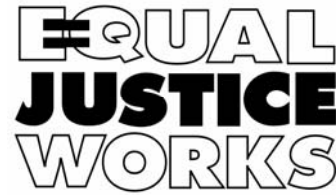

www.law.asu.edu/programs/indian/jobs

Provided by Arizona State University College of Law to facilitate access to Native American employment listings.

Nonprofit Career Network

www.nonprofitcareer.com

This website offers a listing of national and international jobs that can be searched by type and location. Also has information on non-profit jobs, conferences, and conventions.

Public Interest Job Resources

One World Job

www.oneworld.net

This website features positions with organizations protecting the environment, fostering development and assisting with relief efforts worldwide.

Opportunity NOCs

www.opportunityknocks.org

This is a non-profit organization that features classifieds, which can be searched by region or state as well as links to regional sites.

Opportunity NOCs also has job search process information, such as how to write a resume and articles on interviewing.

Opportunities in Public Affairs

www.opajobs.com

This site lists openings in public relations, government affairs, legislation, print and broadcast journalism on Capitol Hill, in non-profits, corporations, and agencies in the DC area. Subscription fee is $69 for 6 months.

The Partnership for Public Service

www.ourpublicservice.org

The partnership seeks to restore public confidence in and prestige to the federal civil service through an aggressive campaign of public-private partnerships as well as focused research and educational efforts. Job listings within the organization are listed there.

Poverty and Race Research Action Council

www.prrac.org/index.php

This organization was created to link social science research to advocacy work in order to address problems at the intersection of race and poverty. The website includes a job bank.

Pro Bono Net

www.probono.net

Pro Bono Net is a non-profit organization headquartered in New York City. Its mission is to increase access to justice through innovative uses of technology and increased volunteer lawyer participation. It provides resources and information about certain substantive areas of the law.

Prosecutor Links

www.prosecutor.info

This site provides links to over 2000 prosecutor, US Attorney and Attorney General offices.

PSLawNet

www.pslawnet.org

PSLawNet offers comprehensive, current information on a broad range of pro bono and public service opportunities, as well as resources and expertise to assist law schools in empowering future lawyers as public servants.

Public Interest Clearinghouse

www.pic.org

The Public Interest Clearinghouse serves low-income communities by providing support for legal aid programs and law students pursuing careers in the public interest.

Public Interest Law Initiative (PILI)

www.pili-law.org

This non-profit promotes pro-bono work among law students and attorneys in Chicago. They provide summer funding for 1Ls, 2Ls, and 3Ls working with non-profit organizations in Chicago.

Roll Call Jobs

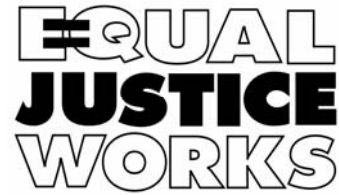

www.rcjobs.com

This is an interactive employment site for jobs on Capitol Hill.

Society of American Law Teachers (SALT)

www.saltlaw.org/jobs.htm

This website has announcements for job opportunities of interest to lawyers and law students.

Public Interest Job Resources

United Nations

www.unsystem.org

This is the official website locator for the UN system of organizations; includes vacancy listings.

United States Department of State

www.state.gov/employment

This is the official job site of United States Department of State.

University of Indiana

www.indiana.edu/~speacare

This website features job postings from the Career Center of the University of Indiana's School of Public and Environmental Affairs. You may have to sift through some science related job ads.

USAJobs.com

www.usajobs.com

This is the official job site of the U.S. Government.

Public Interest Job Resources

