Sample Exam Instructions

Final Exam

Land Use

Professor Marcilynn A. Burke
University of Houston Law Center

YOU MUST RETURN THESE EXAM QUESTIONS AT THE END OF THE EXAM.

Please write your exam number in the blank on the top of this page and on the outside of the plastic bag that you have been provided using a ballpoint pen. Then write your exam number on the General Purpose – NCS – Answer Sheet that you have been provided using a No. 2 pencil.

If you are handwriting your exam, write your exam number on the cover of each of your bluebooks. Also number the bluebooks to indicate how many in total you turn in and the correct order. For example, if you use four bluebooks, they should be labeled “1 of 4”, “2 of 4”, “3 of 4”, and “4 of 4”. Use ONE SIDE of a page only and endeavor to write LEGIBLY. Also, remember to leave yourself some space in between answers so that you can come back to an answer if you desire.

If you are using a computer to take the exam, you must use Electronic Bluebook. You must start Electronic Bluebook from the beginning of the exam so that it is running for the entire exam period. No one’s computer should be on unless it is running Electronic Bluebook. Treat each section of the exam as one question. For example, the first question in Electronic Bluebook will contain all of your response for Section II, Issue Spotter/Essay. In the end, you should have two questions on your flash drive.

This exam is open-book and you may use any written materials assigned for this class or prepared by you (either individually or with others). You may not use any materials stored on computer or disk or any electronic materials. You are bound by the Law Center’s Honor Code and must sign the Pledge with your exam number at the end of these instructions.

This exam is 2 pages long, double-sided (i.e., _ sheets of paper). It consists of 2 pages of instructions, 1 marked blank page, and 14 pages of questions. There are three sections in the exam. Below is the percentage each section will count towards your final exam grade and the recommended time to spend answering each section.

For Section I, Multiple Choice, choose the best answer to the questions presented. There is only one correct answer for each question. Bubble in the letter representing your answer on the General Purposes – NCS – Answer Sheet that you have been provided. Answers marked on the exam will not be graded.

For Section II, Issue Spotter/Essay, your job is to analyze the facts in each question. Do not make up facts or law or fight the facts given. If you need more information to resolve a difficult question, state what information you would need and how it would affect your answer. Read carefully. Think before you write. Good organization, clear statement, and avoidance of irrelevancies all count in your favor. Where possible, support your analysis/argument by referring to relevant authorities. You will not be penalized for not remembering case names; if you cannot remember a case name, simply refer to the case by describing its leading facts. Remember, if the question is about adverse possession write what is needed to analyze/answer the question. Do not write everything that you know about adverse possession. Stick with the relevant material and leave out “the kitchen sink” (lots of irrelevant information).

Though Section III, Policy/Essay, is an opportunity to be creative and possibly use information from other disciplines, it is still appropriate to discuss the doctrines and rules of law covered in class. Your answer should be a blend of various policy arguments and doctrines/rules.

At the end of the exam, you MUST turn in the exam questions, your answer sheet, any scrap paper, and your flash drive or bluebooks. Please place your answer sheet, your scrap paper, and bluebooks in the plastic bag that you have been provided. Please do not fold any of the materials. They will fit in the bag without folding them. Please put your flash drive in the plastic container at the front of the room.
