

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON

LAW CENTER

WHO WE ARE

Established in 1947, the University of Houston Law Center is the leading law school in the nation's fourth-largest city. It offers one of the broadest curricula in the United States and is cited as a "best value" in legal education. The UH Law Center boasts leadership from nationally and globally recognized faculty who offer expertise in fields such as health law, intellectual property, business and commercial law, immigration law, antitrust, international law, energy and environmental law, tax, family law, constitutional law, and clinical education. The UH Law Center also utilizes more than 80 part-time and adjunct instructors from the Houston bar, one of the most sophisticated and diverse bars in the country. Together, they generate a rigorous, enriching curriculum for approximately 600 full-time J.D. students, nearly 100 part-time J.D. students, and more than 100 LL.M. students each year. The UH Law Center's influence extends locally, nationally, and internationally, encompassing business, legal, and education communities. The international activities of its faculty include hosting visiting professors, publishing articles in foreign journals, and participating in international symposia and conferences.

The UH Law Center's dynamic alumni have propelled their careers to work at the top of the law profession in private practice, government service, business, the judiciary, and public interest.

HOW WE RANK

In the past five years, UH Law Center's Health Law, Intellectual Property & Information Law, and Part-Time programs have ranked in the top 10 according to U.S. News & World Report. Legal publications have recognized the Law Center's focus on diversity. INSIGHT into Diversity has honored the Law Center for 4 consecutive years with the Higher Education Excellence in Diversity Award. The National Jurist has cited the Law Center as one of the best values in legal education.

The Law Center received high marks recently from three other publications. preLaw magazine has honored UH Law Center 14 times over the past year. In fact, preLaw has recognized UHLC more times than any other law school in the United States over the 2018-19 reporting period.

Corporate Counsel magazine also ranked the Law Center's LL.M. Tax program third in the nation in 2019. LLM Guide, an international publication, ranked the Law Center's energy and health law programs among the top 10 in the world in 2017.
