LAW ALUMNI ASSOCIATION | BLACK LAW ALUMNI

Black Law Alumni - Membership Form

I want to support the UH Law Center's Black Law Alumni initiative by:

Participating as a:

Steering Committee Member (2-year term)

Membership on the steering committee requires that members commit to attending at least one event for BLA per year, attendance at two to three planning meetings per year, and guide the planning of annual BLA events and outreach (execution and coordination of events will primarily fall under purview of UHLC Alumni Relations Office)

- Estimated Time Commitment: Under 20 hours per Year
- Suggested Membership gift: $500 a year to BLA Scholarship Fund. $250 if graduate of the last decade, retired, government/public interest lawyer. Donors who contribute $10,000 + will receive individual recognition on the Black Law Alumni classroom plaque in the new building.

BLA Member (1-year term)

Members benefit from a variety of events, share talents in BLA leadership or speaker roles, connect with fellow alumni, and membership dues benefit the Black Law Alumni Scholarship. Encourage membership to BLA to alumni from personal networks and class connections. Attend BLA events and provide feedback towards initiatives.

- Suggested Membership gift: $250 a year to the BLA Scholarship Fund. $100 if graduate of the last decade, retired, government/public interest lawyer. Donors who contribute $10,000 + will receive individual recognition on the BLA classroom plaque in the new building.

Membership gifts benefit the BLA Scholarship Fund (for black UHLC students):
