The Texas Innocence Network (TIN) office is located at Krost Hall 203. As long as students are permitted to work on-campus, they may work in the office and use the phone/copier/scanner/fax machine located in the office lobby at their convenience. Any student working at the TIN office must adhere to all UH guidelines regarding Covid-19 (see infra for a link to UH's Guidelines and Procedures). A key to the TIN office lobby can be found outside the Krost Hall office door, and the lockbox code will be given to enrolled class members after classes begin. Students using the lockbox key to open the door must immediately return the key to the lockbox.

With respect to office hours, clinic instructors are always available by email. Voice messages will be returned as soon as possible. Phone calls, Zoom meetings, and/or in-person meetings can be scheduled at a mutually amenable time. With respect to in-person meetings, unless students have scheduled a specific appointment, clinic instructors reserve the right to be out of the office at any time. Scheduled in-person meetings with TIN staff will follow UH's Covid-19 Guidelines and Protocols. Moreover, the TIN office may be closed at any time.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND ATTORNEY/CLIENT PRIVILEGE

As a reminder, students work on actual legal cases in Death Penalty Clinic. Consequently, all case discussions and all work performed during the course of the semester are confidential and covered by Attorney/Client Privilege. Students are absolutely forbidden from: talking about cases with anyone who is not associated with the case or who is currently taking the class; posting anything about their work/the cases on social media; allowing people outside the class to view case materials; etc. To ensure confidentiality, students must take whatever action is necessary to ensure that no other individuals are able to overhear the case meeting or any case-related discussions (e.g. – making case-related phone calls in private, so that nobody can overhear the conversation). If there are any questions regarding confidentiality and/or Attorney/Client Privilege, please contact Professor Newberry immediately.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Through and as a result of this course, students will: (1) demonstrate understanding of substantive and procedural law regulating lawyers' conduct in death penalty trials and appeals; (2) analyze fact-based investigations that led to criminal convictions and perform fact-based investigations to further post-conviction claims; (3) engage in legal analysis and reasoning, legal research, problem-solving, and written and oral communication related to death penalty appeals; (4) evaluate proper professional and ethical responsibilities to clients and the legal system; (5) reflect upon conceptions of professionalism and the lawyer's role in the criminal justice system and society; and (6) recognize trends that will influence the future of criminal lawyers' work and the delivery of legal services.

TEXT/SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIALS

Class and case materials will be made available online via email and Dropbox.

COURSE INFORMATION

Death Penalty Clinic explores the substantive law, appellate procedure, investigative techniques, and post-conviction appellate remedies applicable in criminal cases. Lectures will cover topics such as: Texas criminal statutes, state/federal habeas law and procedure, clemency proceedings, investigative techniques, mitigation evidence, and trial strategy.

In addition to attending lectures, students work on actual death penalty cases. Students investigate claims related to the guilt-innocence and punishment phases of capital murder trials and assist attorneys in researching and drafting appellate legal claims. Death Penalty Clinic students work solely on cases where a criminal defendant has been convicted of capital murder and sentenced to death. Students' work in this class becomes a part of defendants' court filings. These filing deadlines are strictly set by rules and statutes. Consequently, it is vital that students in this class adhere to deadlines set by the course instructor. In the event a student has an issue that might interfere with an assignment deadline (e.g. – personal illness, family issues, computer problems, etc.), the student should inform Professor Newberry as soon as possible so that the work can be reassigned, if needed.

PREFERRED NAME(S)/PRONOUN(S)/PREFIX STATEMENT

Chosen names and preferred pronouns (including non-binary ones such as they/them/their) must be respected in our classroom. Please feel free to reach out to Professor Jeu at any time if you want to make us aware of your chosen name, preferred pronoun, and/or a favored prefix; or if you have concerns about how we or your classmates address you. Any lapses made by your instructors should be attributed to failings of memory and/or honest mistake, as your chosen names and preferred pronouns are respected in this class.

GRADING AND ASSESSMENT

Grades in Death Penalty Clinic will be based entirely on the quality of student work performed during the semester. Death Penalty Clinic contains a Pass/Fail option. Grading will take place in accordance with UH and UHLC policies. For additional information regarding UHLC's official policies with respect to grading in general, please refer to the UHLC student handbook and/or official announcements that may occur throughout the semester.

This course offers formative assessment during the semester during the weekly breakout sessions in order to provide feedback on student performance and competence. Upon request, individual feedback is available upon request at any time.

CLASS MEETINGS AND ATTENDANCE (GENERAL POLICIES)

Death Penalty Clinic is a face-to-face class that will be held on Tuesdays from 4:00pm – 6:00pm. The class lecture will be held in person at a classroom TBA, followed by a case meeting held in a breakout room at a classroom TBA. Pursuant to UHLC policy, students must attend at least 80% of all classes. Attendance will be kept and enforced in accordance with UHLC policy. Any needed make-up classes will be scheduled in accordance with UHLC policy.

Students who are unable to attend the weekly case meeting must contact Professor Newberry (jrnewber@central.uh.edu) in order to set up a separate, individual case meeting to take place at a mutually amenable time.

RECORDING OF CLASSES

Students may not record all or part of class, livestream all or part of class, or make/distribute screen captures, without advanced written consent of the instructor. If you have or think you may have a disability such that you need to record class-related activities, please contact the Justin Dart, Jr. Student Accessibility Center. If you have an accommodation to record class-related activities, those recordings may not be shared with any other student, whether in this course or not, or with any other person or on any other platform. Classes may be recorded by the instructor. Students may use instructor's recordings for their own studying and notetaking. Instructor's recordings are not authorized to be shared with anyone without the prior written approval of the instructor. Failure to comply with requirements regarding recordings will result in a disciplinary referral to the Dean of Students Office and may result in disciplinary action.

CLASS REQUIREMENTS

A total of 120 hours (including class time, meetings, etc.) must be spent on work performed for Death Penalty Clinic. “Billing” takes place in .25/hour increments. As part of the required 240 hours, students must attend class lectures, complete case assignments/work, submit a timesheet in Excel format that specifically details the work performed during the semester and the amount of time worked, and return all case files/materials.

At any point in the semester, if a student foresees having difficulty reaching 120 hours, the student must contact Professor Jeu immediately. She and Professor Newberry will work with students and UHLC Student Services on reaching a mutually amenable solution that adheres to university requirements. Failure to complete the 120 hours will result in an incomplete or failing grade. Student timesheets and all assignments are due by 3:00 pm on Monday, December 19, 2022.
