

THE MILITARY JUSTICE CLINIC

NOW OPEN

The Military Justice Clinic (MJC) at the University of Houston Law Center represents current and former members of the United States military in matters involving allegations of misconduct under the Uniform Code of Military Justice, adverse administrative actions, investigations, separations, and administrative appeals. MJC clients will work closely with faculty and law students throughout their case.

Apply for this legal representation free of charge at:

<https://www.law.uh.edu/clinic/military.asp>

713-743-2094