2020 Works-in-Progress Intellectual Property Colloquium (WIPIP)

Call for Papers

The High Tech Law Institute invites you to participate in the 17th annual Works-in-Progress Intellectual Property Colloquium (WIPIP), February 7-8, 2020, Santa Clara University School of Law, Santa Clara, California. The colloquium provides intellectual property scholars with a forum to present their academic works-in-progress and receive early feedback from their peers.

Participation Requests

You can request to present your work by emailing your contact information and affiliation, the title of your work, and a short abstract (500 words or less, preferably as a PDF attachment) to Prof. Eric Goldman, egoldman@gmail.com. Please put "WIPIP" in the email subject line. The priority deadline for presentation requests is November 21, 2019 at noon Pacific. Late speaking requests will be honored on a space-available basis. For submissions/requests made by the priority deadline, we will send notifications of acceptance by December 15. There is no paper publication requirement, but we will post the abstracts publicly. We will also post all submitted paper drafts to a password-protected site accessible to all attendees.

We also welcome participant-discussants who aren't presenting. If you're interested, please email your request and contact information to Prof. Goldman.

There are no costs to attend WIPIP, but conference attendees are responsible for their travel costs. Travel Info

Game Night

After dinner on Friday, we'll have a team-based game called "Faculty Feud." It will be a fun alternative to the IP Trivia night tradition that SCU pioneered at WIPIP 2014, and we'll shake things up with some new rules about team composition. We've got some terrific IP-themed prizes for the winners! After Faculty Feud, we will offer many other games, including Dungeons & Dragons quests led by semi-pro dungeonmasters.

We hope you can join us in Santa Clara. If you have any questions, email Prof. Goldman at egoldman@gmail.com.
